BROCKTON, MA – Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz has announced that Anildo Lopes Correia, (DOB: 03/10/1997) AKA “Ace” of Brockton was arraigned today on a charge of murder. The Commonwealth requested and Brockton District Court Judge Paul McCallum ordered Correia held without bail.

The charge stems from Correia’s involvement in a stabbing that occurred April 22nd at 6:40 p.m. at James Edgar Playground in Brockton. The charge alleges that Correia stabbed the victim, Ywron Martins, (DOB: 04/15/1997), of Brockton, multiple times in the face and torso. As a result, Martins died from his injuries later that night at The Good Samaritan Hospital in Brockton. Two other stabbing victims involved in the incident were treated and released from the hospital shortly after the incident. The circumstances surrounding the non-fatal stabbings are under investigation.

State Police assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney’s Office arrested Correia Sunday night, April 26th in Fall River, after a 4-day search.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Thomas Flanagan and is being investigated by State Police assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney’s Office and Brockton Police.

The case is next scheduled for a pre-trial conference on May 22, 2015. Correia is being represented by Attorney Victoria Kelleher of Salem.

NO FURTHER INFORMATION IS BEING RELEASED AT THIS TIME.
